

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES GASTON

The Department of Social Services exists to alleviate emotional and economical distress among the people of the county through preventative and restorative programs. Applications for services can be made by contacting the Department of Social Services. General information concerning eligibility for services may be made by telephone; however, a signed application is required for most programs. The Medicaid/Special Assistance Fund provides medical expenses for disabled/aged adults and monthly payment to help pay the cost of rest home care.
